Tektschik Twins To Open Community Concert Season Tonight At Local College

One of this country's most successful twin piano teams will appear in concert tonight, launching the 1953-54 Community Concert season in East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium.

The pianists, Alfred and Herbert Teltchik, come from a musically-inclined family. After beginning their musical career under instruction of their father, the Teltchiks moved on to Houston, Tex. near their home in Floresville to study under widely-known teacher Aldridge Kidd.

They completed their education at New York's Juillard School of Music; returned to Houston where both brothers got married, began to teach piano in the public school system.

During World War Two the brothers were assigned to various military orchestras; later gave numerous two-piano recitals for the Armed Forces.

After the war ended, they began giving two-piano recitals in Houston. A nationwide tour followed and the Teltchiks are now in their sixth such series of appearances before national audiences.

The duo-pianists "kick-off" this year's Community Concert series tonight at 8:30 in the auditorium.

Other artists slated to appear this year are Todd Duncan and Camilla Williams in joint recital; the Ana Maria Spanish Ballet and violinist Ricardo Odonopoff.

All four concerts begin at 8:30 p. m.

Lutheran Group Will Hold Meeting

The committee on religious education of the Allentown Conference announces that the annual convention and workshop of officers and teachers of the 125 Lutheran Sunday Schools in the conference will be held at Muhlenberg College tonight at 7:30.

The first session will be devoted to a brief devotional service for the whole group in the Egner-Hartzell Chapel at the college. The Rev. Arnold F. Keller, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Allentown will deliver the keynote address on "Making Christ Real."

Following the opening session the various departmental groups will assemble at assigned places on the college grounds for the discussion of problems having to do with their several departments.

The senior department will be in charge of Mrs. Parke W. Kunkle, a teacher in that department at St. John's, Stroudsburg. Officers and teachers of St. John's will meet at the church promptly at 6:30 o'clock to attend this important convention.

Portland Area Receives Its Seal Quotas

Portland—The Tuberculosis and Health Society of Eastern Northampton County will seek to raise $21,000 in its seal campaign, Seal Sale Chairman John Meyers has announced. Of this total, the Portland area, including Mt. Bethel, Stateford and Bangor RD1, with Clayton Horton as chairman, is asked to contribute $450.00.

The sale opens November 16 and continues through December.

Other State Seal chairmen and quota are: Bangor, James Brudie and Miss Lella Flory, $1800.00; Pen Argyl, Mrs. Verne Weaver, $1000.00; Wind Gap, Jay Sleep, $350.00, and Roseto, with no chairman, $175.00.

YMCA Starts Program For 200 Youths

The Monroe County Young Men's Christian Association has announced that its Fall and Winter programs for youth is moving into high gear. Many activities are now underway or will be started within the near future for 200 young people.

The East Stroudsburg Tri-Hi-Y (for girls in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades) with Mrs. H. Hantjas as advisor, has been meeting for two months at the E. Stroudsburg High School. Last week the group carried out their induction for new members.

The Intermediate Tri-Hi-Y of Stroudsburg High School is meeting at the Methodist Church every Tuesday night at 7:15. Miss Doris Hantje the club advisor, said that 22 of the girls attended the District Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Rally held in Easton where an inspiration and social evening was presented for 550 YMCA members of Eastern Pennsylvania.

The Stroudsburg Hi-Y club (boys in 10th, 11th and 12th grades) was reorganized last week. This group meets at the Methodist Church every Wednesday night at 7:30. This year the Hi-Y boys will participate in the State YMCA's Youth and Government program; they are now preparing a bill (model) to be sent to the Pennsylvania Legislative Assembly to be held in Allentown on December 12.

The Barrett Branch YMCA of Barrett Township also organized the first Hi-Y club under the new "Y" program. The group holds its meeting at the Mount-inhome Methodist Church every Tuesday evening at 7:30 until the new branch building is completed.

The Gra-Y club program, for boys in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades has started with two large, enthusiastic clubs at Ramsey and Morey Schools.

A Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Council will hold its first meeting on Thursday November 13 at the Presbyterian Church. The purpose of this group will be to assemble the officers of the various Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs in the County in development of better club practices, exchange of program ideas, and to work out county programs for high school youth. This council will meet once a month.

The Biddy Basketball League, under the direction of Sam Evers, will begin practice in the near future with regular games begun.

Why more than a million owners this year have chosen the "Worth More" FORD!

They have discovered first hand what the surveys show...

Ford, with all its fine-car features, is worth more when you buy it, and worth more when you sell it!

OVER A MILLION OWNERS can't be wrong! Ford is the one, fine car in the low-price field. It gives you the "Go," the style, the comfort, and "build" of cars that sell for far more. And, it's only natural that Ford keeps its value better, in resale, than any other car on the American Road. Check the features below for some of the "Worth More" reasons for the swing to Ford.

Lowest-priced V-8 in America! And the only V-8 in the low-price field. Ford's high-compression V-8 power plant delivers its "Go" on regular gas!

Most Modern Six of all is Ford's high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker. With Overdrive, it beat all other cars entered in 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Smoother Ride, with front end road shock reduced up to 80%. is another of Ford's big-car features... and you get it without gas-eating extra weight!

Fine-Car Build means using steel of the same quality and thickness as the costliest cars. And Ford is the most completely insulated car in its field.

Fordomatic Drive is the only "automatic" in its field to offer the "Go" of an automatic intermediate gear plus the smoothness of a torque converter.

Finest Power Steering—that's Ford Master-Guide. It does up to 75% of the steering work yet retains the normal steering "feel" on the straightaways.

Double Armistice Day Programs Are Planned For Wednesday

Speakers To Address Both High Schools

Double Armistice programs will be held Wednesday at East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg schools.

Both services will be carried out in cooperation with the Monroe County Joint Memorial Committee under supervision of chairman Howard Mount and co-chairman Earl Palmer.

Actual beginning of the ceremonies will be at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday when American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars Commanders, accompanied by honor guards and officers, will place a wreath at the foot of the doughboy monument in Court House Square, Stroudsburg.

A salute will be fired and taps sounded at the conclusion of the brief service marking homage to American dead.

At 9 a.m. another wreath will be placed by commanders of the veterans organizations. This ceremony will take place at the Legion monument, Legion Home, on Washington St., East Stroudsburg. Programs in the two boroughs are slated to begin promptly at 10 a.m.

In Stroudsburg High School auditorium, master of ceremonies Earl F. Groner will open the program followed by advancing of the colors in which students will take part.

The Stroudsburg High School bugler will play "To the Colors." Rev. Adan Bohner, Kunkletown, will give the invocation.

Joseph J. McCuskey, Stroudsburg attorney, will deliver the major address in observance of Armistice Day at the Stroudsburg school.

Representatives of the various veterans organizations on the local level will be in attendance.

The East borough observance begins at 10 a.m. in East Stroudsburg Junior High School, Carl T. Secor acting as master of ceremonies.

Principal speaker on the program will be Dr. Joseph F. Noonan, president of State Teachers College.

No parade is planned for Armistice Day this year.

Claims Typo Union Should Have Jurisdiction Over All News Teletypesetters

The union should "have jurisdiction over" all teletypesetters, delegates heard Saturday night in Stroudsburg at the quarterly meeting of Pennsylvania-Delaware Typographical Conference.

Luther J. Nocht, Lansford, Pa., secretary-treasurer of the conference, made the statement in reviewing developments in the printing trade.

He pointed out that a number of newspapers have teletypesetting machines in their offices. The machines set type, performing the operation of a linetypist, but are controlled and operated electrically from a central office many miles away—on the order of a teletype machine.

If the trend toward teletypesetting continues, said Nocht, "it wouldn't be good" for the union. The union should have "jurisdiction" over the machines, he said, in order to protect the jobs of linetype operators.

Despite bad weather more than 150 delegates attended the meeting at the Penn-Stroud Hotel. Missing were some out-of-town delegates and speaker Louis Hines. Talking in his stead was Stroudsburg's burgess Hal H. Harris, who welcomed delegates with a political talk.

Invocation was by Rev. Harold G. Durkin, pastor of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, East Stroudsburg. Toastmaster was John Farley, president of the East Stroudsburg union No. 943.

Delegate who traveled furthest was Mrs. Marion VanNest, of the New Jersey Printers' League, from Trenton, N. J.

Officers of the 23-union eastern Pennsylvania branch are Charles W. Markert, Reading, president; and vice-president Harold W. Priest of Lancaster, Franklin W. Turner of Chester, and Michael Cassie Jr. of Hazleton. Local vice-president is Ora Bonser, Stroudsburg RD.

35 English Pheasants Are Killed

An East Stroudsburg RD1 resident lost 25 English pheasants Friday night.

The birds, belonging to Robert Gottier, were apparently killed by a weasel or mink, according to game officers.

Gottier examined his pheasant confines on property of the Rip Van Winkle House Friday afternoon. He found everything in order.

Gottier discovered the dead birds lying in freshly-fallen snow early Saturday morning. Out of a total 37 kept in the runways, 25 had been killed.

The owner summoned Frank Smith, deputy game warden, Marshalls Creek. Smith examined the dead birds, found tiny puncture marks on several of the throats—a mark similar to that left by weasels or other rodents which puncture arteries and drain blood from birds and other animals.

Owner Gottier told game officials that in the many years he has been raising English pheasants, he had not been subjected to such attack.

Exchange Club Meets Tonight

Exchange Club meets tonight at 6:30 in East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church.

Members will hear Jesse S. Flory, newly-elected burgess of the borough, in his first public appearance following last Tuesday's local elections.

Plans will be discussed for the club's annual "Ladies' Night" program, slated for Monday, Nov. 23, at Onawa Lodge.

Pocono Resort Area Advances To Be Studied

Pocono Manor—New developments affecting the Pocono Plateau resort area will be the principal discussion topic Monday, Nov. 23, at the second annual "community dinner" sponsored by the Mount Pocono Chamber of Commerce and local service clubs.

On hand to lead the discussion will be an official from Harrisburg, according to preliminary announcements made at a recent Chamber meeting.

This year's dinner will be held in the Manor dining room at 7 p.m., the Chamber announced.

Chief items on the agenda will be the new Pocono Plateau highway, the Delaware River Bridges, Big Pocono State park and the new Devil's Hole game preserve.

All these items, Chamber directors have pointed out, work for the betterment of the entire resort area. An effort will be made to determine their influence on business during coming years.

Also proposed at the Chamber meeting was publication of a booklet describing the development of the Pocono Plateau region since the days of the American Revolution. John Crandall, Pocono Manor manager, is president of the Chamber.

Rotarians Will Meet At Buck Hill

Buck Hill Falls—A district governor will be nominated here next weekend at the annual district Rotary conference.

The sessions start Friday. Business meetings will continue through Saturday, dealing with the four lanes of service which are Rotary keystones—club service, community service, international service and vocational service.

Nominating committee will recommend Arthur Knight of Scranton as district president. Knight also will serve as conference coordinator.

Some 450 men and women are expected at the meeting. Presiding will be Frank Dolbeer, Tunkhannock, district governor.

Speaker at the governor's ball Saturday night will be Frank E. Spain, past president of Rotary International.

Sunday morning Rotarians will take part in a memorial service honoring members who have died during the past year.

Local Child Guidance To Hold Meeting

The Child Guidance Center of Monroe and Northampton Counties is having its yearly meeting at the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg at 8:00 p.m., November 11, 1953.

The entire clinic staff will be there and will present a case history to show how the Clinic functions.

Monroe County Board of Child Guidance includes: Mrs. Clifford Butz, Mrs. Merle Stevenson, Dr. Charlotte B. Jordan, Mr. Ralph O. Burrows and Mr. Roger Dunning.

Funeral Held For Welliver

Funeral services were held yesterday for the late John P. Welliver, Kresgeville, at Kresge funeral home, Brodheadsville.

Rev. Alton Albright officiated. Pallbearers were Haiden Murphy, Dewey Scheller, Harold Everitt, Stanley Rader, Elmer Kresger and Warren Gurskey.

Interment was made in Gilbert Cemetery. Services had been originally scheduled for Saturday but were postponed due to storm conditions.

Bangor PSEA Will Observe American Education Week With Special Programs

Bangor—The local branch of the Pennsylvania School Education Association will observe American Education Week on Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 7 p.m. at the high school and at 1 p.m. at the McKinley, Lincoln and Roosevelt elementary schools. Invitations have been mailed to all parents of the students in all schools to attend classes with their youngsters.

At the high school, parents will accompany their children to three regular classes after which a brief assembly program will be held for the parents and visitors in the high school auditorium. Entertainment for the assembly program will be provided by The Harmonettes, a girls singing group, and a performance by the twirlers and majorettes of the high school band.

Samuel Hicks will be guest speaker for the program. Refreshments for the parents will be served following the assembly in the home economics room. At this time parents will be able to observe the recent addition of new equipment and the renovations and improvements made in the home economics department recently.

At the elementary schools, parents will accompany their children to classes where many special programs have been prepared. Refreshments will also be served in these schools.

The committee in charge of the observance includes Stirling Schmoey and Florence Giacinto co-chairmen; Adalene Duvall, Ruth Frederick, Trevor Williams, Marjorie Traves, Samuel Smith, Dorothy Everett, and president of the local branch, Armon Williams.

Population Is Stable In State

Harrisburg, Pa.—Pennsylvania ranks extremely high in the stability of its population.

In only one other state did so high a percentage of the people live in the same house in 1950 as they had done in 1949. The percentage of "non-movers," as the United States Census terms these people satisfied with their location and opportunities here or at any rate not moving to new ones, was 87.7 of the total population of Pennsylvania.

In one state, Florida, the percentage was only 71.3; in California it was 72.9; and for the entire United States, 81.1. Pennsylvania may justly claim, therefore, that it has one of the most stable and one of the least restless populations in the United States, the State Department of Commerce says.

The largest movements into and out of Pennsylvania between 1949 and 1950 were naturally exchanges of population with our neighboring states—New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Maryland—but the highest total movement of population that occurred in Pennsylvania was within the state itself.

From 1949 to 1950 there were 160,665 persons who changed their residence from one county of Pennsylvania to another while 798,930 moved from a different home in the same county out of a total of 1,076,470 movers.

"The evidence is strong that Pennsylvanians like to live in Pennsylvania," the Department said.

Would Make Mauch Chunk "Jim Thorpe"

Mauch Chunk, Pa. (AP)—Two Pennsylvania towns with reputations for their Indian lore would like to merge and change their name to honor one of the best known and best loved Indians of all—the late Jim Thorpe.

Approval of Mrs. Thorpe to have the almost legendary athlete's body brought here for burial is all that's needed to set the machinery in motion that may make Mauch Chunk and its sister borough, East Mauch Chunk become "Jim Thorpe, Pa."

If Thorpe's widow approves, then a petition signed by 10 per cent of the town's eligible voters must be submitted to a court, which then would set up a special election. Joe Boyle, editor of the Mauch Chunk Times News and spokesman for a group of citizens spearheading the drive, is sure the townspeople will support the idea.

But the twin boroughs plan something more than just a geographic tribute to the great Indian athlete who played for the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., some 70 miles west of here—around 40 years ago.

"We thought in terms of living memorial," Boyle explains. That living memorial would be the Jim Thorpe Memorial Hospital for treatment of cancer and heart patients. Thorpe was suffering from cancer and a heart condition when he died earlier this year.

Rehearsals Started

Portland—Rehearsals under the direction of Miss Kathryn De Polo, for the play "Flying High" are under way. The play will be given in the school gym on Thursday, Nov. 12 and Friday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m.

Tickets are now available from Woman Club members. The play is sponsored by the ways and means department of the Woman's Club, and the proceeds will be used for civic and welfare work.

Chest Clean-Up

A community and its citizens are judged on many things, but one of the most important of these is how it meets and discharges its responsibilities to the needy, the sick and the youth.

Monroe County is about to face that acid test of meeting community responsibility this week when leaders and workers of Monroe County Community Chest move out to obtain the final 25 per cent needed to keep functioning those organizations dealing in these basic humanitarian functions.

Every Chest worker, every citizen shares equally the task of making this Community chest "clean-up" week successful. Maybe you were not contacted by a worker. It is now your duty to call Community Chest headquarters and tell them, or send your contribution promptly.

Keep in mind that all of us are on trial during the next several days. It is up to us to see that the judgment rendered in the case of the Community Chest drive is—that we meet our responsibilities to the sick, the needy and the youth of our community.

The Pride Of Corps

The United States Marine Corps, proudest organization of fighting men in this or any other nation, is celebrating its 178th anniversary in the homeland and at stations on land and sea all over the world, and it is right and proper that every patriotic citizen accord the famous amphibious corps the homage due it.

In Monroe County, as an important part of the observance, the Marine Corps League is staging a "birthday" ball.

From the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli, as the familiar words of the popular Marine hymn record it, the Corps has really fought its nation's battles on land, sea, and now in the air as well.

Critics of the Marines, usually motivated by envious emotions, have been inclined to look down their noses at the amazingly successful publicity attending their history, but the fair minded have to admit that it has usually been well justified.

We in Monroe County and the surrounding area are proud of our men who have served and continue to serve with the United States Marines, either on active duty or in the Marine Corps Reserve, and we salute them for their part in writing the magnificent history of the organization.

The Prayer

In New York, a strike of drivers and plant workers in the milk industry was settled with a pay raise and other benefits a few days ago.

And, without trying, we'll bet you can guess who is going to pay for all this. The consumer, of course. As soon as the settlement was announced, a penny increase in the milk price was announced.

The consumer who will pay this increase is the same consumer who was deprived of his milk supply for 6 days while the strike was on. And the consumer is the one party to the case who had nothing at all to say about the settlement.

This is getting to be a monotonously familiar pattern. But one of these days Mama is going to stand up and holler, but loud!

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

DRIVERS' CLINIC

It is announced that a free clinic has been set up in New York to help auto drivers determine their driving faults. They are invited to come in and have their failing as motorists diagnosed. This will get no where. Did you ever hear of an automobile operator who admitted he had any faults? Especially the type that need clinical attention? The Greater New York Safety Council sponsors this idea and it must be made up of 100 per cent optimists. We wish the council well but predict that its clinic is going to be a wonderful place to be alone. Newspapers should follow the experiment, because, by a public appearance of an auto driver who wishes to acknowledge he has a few limitations and is receptive to criticism and advice should make the most sensational story in recent years. The fellow will probably get offers from a circus.

Fancy the scene. The clinic is in session, but has had only two callers all day. One was a man who had the wrong street number; the other was a brush salesman. Finally, a man enters and really establishes himself as an autoist. He admits he is worried over HIS OWN BEHAVIOR AT THE WHEEL! A member of the Safety Council who had made a $50 bet that the clinic would start him down, but the autoist is obdurate. "I have driving faults," he declares. "They annoy ME!" "Would you mind repeating that sentence?" a clinic specialist asks. "I have driving faults," the man repeats. "They annoy ME!"

A buzzer is pressed and three guards rush in to seize and bind the applicant. (There is naturally a fear he will escape and turn out to be the only specimen in existence.) "Shall we give him the balloon test?" asks one attendant. "Why? He isn't drunk," says another. "He MUST be," is the reply.

The motorist proves he is sober. This makes it all the more startling. "Proceed," Tell us your faults as an auto driver, an attendant asks, still a little weak from surprise. "I have a tendency to go through red lights," he says. "Yellow doesn't mean a thing to me, either."

"How long have you been doing this?" he is asked. "I dunno. How long have there been red and yellow lights?" he replies. "I also took my horn if the car ahead of me hesitates more than ten seconds. I didn't mind this at first but it has begun to wear out my horn. Does this clinic sell larger-sized horns?"

"Go on," says the attendant. "What other bad habits have you?" "I love to beat others into the space between parking meters," the man said. "And I never slow down going through school zones. I don't know whether it's blood pressure or day sleep. I also disregard speed signs, pay no attention to white lines, park four feet from the curb, never have my brakes fixed and am quite profane in traffic. I think I inherit it on my Aunt Minnie's side. But it could be due to the fact I am not getting enough vitamins. Please, please help me! I just can't go on being such a heel at the wheel. What will people think?"

But the World's Rarest Autoist stopped abruptly. For nobody was listening. The entire clinic had passed out cold.

Robert S. Allen Reports

U. S.-Yugoslav Relations Are Under Great Strain

Washington — Relations between the U. S. and Yugoslavia are far more strained than has been publicly disclosed. Behind the scenes, the friction has reached the retaliatory stage. One instance of deliberate Yugoslav obstructionism was ended only when President Eisenhower personally interceded with Marshal Tito.

Following are examples of the backstage feuding between the two governments:

Yugoslavia abruptly cut off the Intelligence it has been furnishing the U. S. since they signed a bi-lateral agreement in November 1951. Some of the most important information on Russia and its satellites has come from this source.

The U. S. is delaying the shipment of certain high-priority military equipment that is much desired by Yugoslavia. These items include tanks and jet fighters.

Belgrade has imposed a number of annoying restrictions on American military personnel, which are hampering their travel and inspection of U. S. arms. The Yugoslavs have also stopped publishing reports about the American aid program as specifically required by the bi-lateral pact.

And Marshal Tito has personally let it be known that shipments of strategic materials to this country will be halted unless the explosive Trieste plan is "satisfactorily" modified.

President Eisenhower's personal intervention occurred when Secretary of State Dulles was unable to induce the Yugoslavs to agree to the replacement of Brigadier General John W. Harmon as Military Attaché in Belgrade. Actually, Harmon is head of the 50-member Military Mission in that country. His tour of duty there expired and the Army wanted to assign another officer. But Dulles' requests were repeatedly rebuffed.

Finally, President Eisenhower sent a firm message to Tito personally and the sniping on this matter ceased.

The new Mission head is Brigadier General Peter C. Hains, former Chief of Staff of the Second Army, who goes to Belgrade this week. He will particularly seek to persuade the Yugoslavs to resume their valuable Intelligence reports.

So far, the U. S. has given that country more than $200,000,000 in military and economic aid. Note: Ambassador Bohlen has informed the State Department, in a comprehensive analysis, that Premier Malenkov has consolidated his grip on the Politburo and that political conditions in Russia are no longer unsettled. However, the new Moscow rulers are uneasy over seething disaffection in the satellite countries and that is a major reason the Reds are balking at negotiating with the West.

Crackdown — Atomic Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss has experienced a sharp rebuff. He has been overruled by the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy.

The Committee has ordered the Commission to prepare in time for submission to the coming session of Congress a comprehensive report on the "social, political, economic and international effects of the development of atomic power."

The Committee suggested such a study earlier this year, but nothing was done chiefly because Strauss contended his agency wasn't ready to tackle the job. But the Committee has now ordered the Commission to compile the report so it will be available when Congress considers the weighty problem of amending the Atomic Energy Act for possible private participation in the development of atomic power.

Muffled chance — Most significant news item at Defense Secretary Wilson's last press conference didn't come out—through no fault of his. He wasn't asked about the matter, so he didn't discuss it.

But if the right questions had been asked him, the Pentagon boss was all set to disclose the following far-reaching plan: The Administration is ready to withdraw American forces from Japan as quickly as their equivalent are developed by the Japanese.

Wilson anticipated being questioned about the build-up of Japanese armed forces as a result of a previous Pentagon announcement on the matter. So he came to the press conference with a carefully-prepared statement containing the above significant disclosure.

But to Wilson's surprise, he wasn't asked a single question on the subject.

Try and Stop Me

—by Bennet Cerf

While that versatile cut-up, Donald O'Connor, was doing his hitch in the U. S. Army, he ran into temporary difficulties with income tax authorities, and was allowed to accept a two-week engagement at a theatre near his post to get himself out of hock. His first show brought down the house and the manager enthused, "Best darn act we've ever had here—but boy, would you get that corny accompanist? Better let us replace him for the next show. 'Is-nay,' whispered O'Connor frantically. "and pipe down, will you? That guy's my commanding officer!"

George Sokolsky Says...

Senate Foreign Relations Committee's Paper On Commies Should Be In Schools

No battle is ever won without knowledge, and the war against Russia and international Communism has only too often been lost in various areas by astounding ignorance. In some of the recent closed sessions of the Congressional committees, high officials appeared who displayed a frightening lack of knowledge of the details of subjects which they handle as specialists. The excuse often is that he, the witness, has someone else for details. Then why is he a specialist?

So the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has published a pamphlet, which is available for public consumption and which you can obtain by writing to Senator Alexander Wiley, Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Washington, D. C.

This pamphlet will settle dozens of arguments, because it deals strictly with facts on two subjects:

"1. Statistics on the parliamentary status of Communist Parties, their claimed or estimated membership, and a brief statement concerning their source of strength.

"2. A region-by-region analysis of the objectives and tactics of Communism."

The committee counsel, Julius N. Cahn, who has had a vast experience in this field, is a quiet, studious researcher to whom a fact is a living thing. It is interesting to note how taut and lean this study is. Actually not a word of propaganda appears in it—only the established details as they are without trimmings.

One remark in the introduction needs to be repeated: "In the first place, the Communists have time and again proven the extent to which even a small, highly disciplined group inside or outside a parliament (indeed, in virtually any organization) can succeed in a wrecking operation.

"Secondly, the Communists in many instances prefer to keep the Communist Party as such, a small, tight 'elite' organization. They often prefer to leave to mass, non-Communist Parties and organizations, the principal overt task of moving the society in the direction the Communists want it to go."

I was particularly interested in the data provided concerning Latin America, where, in recent years, the Communists have made considerable and, for us, distasteful progress, actually establishing themselves as a power in Guatemala. In 12 of the 20 Latin American countries, they have been suppressed as a party, although the evidence is that they are working underground. According to this study, they have no present prospect of gaining control of Latin American countries by the electoral process, although that does not preclude strikes, demonstrations, and a constant pull to the left by the infiltration of intellectual groups. It is always and in every country that the intellectuals fall for them.

It is possible that they have exaggerated their power in the Confederation of Latin American Workers, but it is true that this dominant labor organization is Communist-controlled by Vicente Lombardo Toledano. The union has established itself through holding key positions in strategic labor unions and federations.

There are all sorts of occasions where "Silence" could be utilized to produce the most marvelous results. I wish Congress would pass a law that everybody has to stand up while the disc is being played, just as they do for the national anthem.

It is very difficult for most folks to think on their feet and some thinking might well take a rest while listening to "Silence" imagine what would happen at the United Nations every time Vishinsky or one of his satellites would try to make a speech.

Suddenly "Silence" is turned on. Everybody rises. Everybody stands at attention for 15 minutes. Vishinsky forgets what he wanted to talk about, or maybe he has cramps in his legs and CAN'T talk even if he wanted to. I really believe that just keeping quiet instead of shooting off our mouths as we do now might help a lot to restore REAL peace on this earth.

Just sit down and think for a few moments. Haven't most of the wars, the family fights, the disagreements between partners, and all the other scraps and squabbles been caused by TALKING?

Why not try "SILENCE" for a change?

Of course, if you cannot get the record anywhere, why wouldn't it be a good idea to sing this wonderful song of peace yourself?

Why don't you just have an agreement with your folks and with yourself not to speak a single word for three minutes? By the way, I understand—and again I say I cannot vouch for it—that the "Silence" record is going to come out in the long-playing form, too, giving you 15 or more minutes of complete silence. Imagine what that can do for your peace of mind!

There ought to be good many uses for the new tune.

For instance, at club and organization luncheons, this record could be substituted for the principal speaker, the fellow who puts out a 30-page manuscript which starts, "Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking..." or "Not having expected to be called upon, I just want to make a few ad lib remarks..."

Another occasion at which the new record could be used would be at bridge games where usual-

Therefore the broad base does not matter, as the fact is that whoever controls the organization can generally manipulate its members, just as in the United States. The Senate committee's report says:

"... So long as Communist Parties have cells in labor, student, intellectual, and nationalist groups, and Communist propaganda can play on their drives and discontents, as is now the case in many Latin American countries, Communist capabilities in the area are a factor with which to reckon."

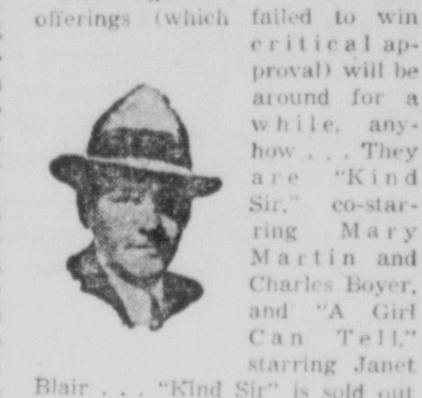

Everywhere in Latin America these organizations and their allies conduct a constant propaganda against the United States, and in pursuance of their anti-Americanism, the Communists have joined with Fascist groups which are also anti-American. Therefore, our position in Latin America is menaced and actually we face the rising power of Communism in Guatemala, Costa Rica, British Guiana and Venezuela.

Today the trend among Congressional committees is to issue objective reports and texts to inform the people as to the facts in a situation. The Jenner Committee reports are among the best available on the subjects which they cover. One of those reports has already reached a circulation of over 140,000, which means that it has actually reached a sufficiently large segment of the population to lay a basis for thought and discussion. The pamphlet which I am presently discussing is of equal value and should have a wide circulation, particularly in schools, colleges and libraries where students seek the facts and often cannot find them. Factual, checkable material is worth more than propaganda, which is represented.

On Broadway

—by Walter Winchell

The Broadway Lights First-Nights: Two of the new offerings (which failed to win critical approval) will be around for a while. Anyhow... They are "Kind Sir," co-starring Mary Martin and Charles Boyer, and "A Girl Can Tell," starring Janet Blair...

Blair... "Kind Sir" is sold out through June ($750,000 in the bank) and "Tell" has an advance sale guaranteeing a run until New Year's... The reviewers confirmed the trout-town inspectors and found "Sir" a mountain of talent in a molehill play. Distaff-players will appreciate it most. As one of them sighed: "It's a story of my life!" Lillian Gish returned to the Broadway scene (after a long absence) in "The Trip to Bountiful." The star enjoyed a personal triumph—shared by Jo Van Fleet. The majority of critics were disappointed in the show... Mr. McClain's estimate: "Fine acting—little play." Mr. Hawkins summed up for the minority with: "That rarest of theatrical experiences, an evening which will prove an indelible memory!" Josephine Hull's sunny drollery brightens "The Solid Gold Cadillac," a satire co-authored by George S. Kaufman and Howard Teichmann. The reviews were filled with 14-karat superlatives for Mrs. Hull and the majority appraised the show as a gift-edged spoof. Mr. Coleman's nugget: "A solid gold elixir."

The Cinemagicians: "Kiss Me Kate" (at the Music Hall) is full of melody and mischief... Kathryn Grayson enhances every pretty sound of Cole Porter's delightful score and Ann Miller's dancing and figure wrap it up as First-Rate entertainment... "The Joe Louis Story" is a biography of a man who was a champion in and out of the ring. A wallop movie... An Italian import named "The Queen of Sheba" grosspoints a generally interesting sketch of the Biblical temptress. Lovely Leonora Ruffo is its star... "Sabre Jet" salutes America's eagles. The aerial maneuvers are more exciting than the plot. Julie Bishop is the character "Calamity Jane" has a flimsy yarn playing second-fiddle to Doris Day's attractive song-styles... "The Fake" (from Britain) is fine for insomnia.

The Telebrities: "Omnibus" offered a shocker: An American officer described the torture the Reds employed to get his confession... Ethel Waters rendition of "St. Louis Blues" (via "American Inventory") was one of the teevy week's treats... Martha Raye's comedy confection kidded the Gabor Sisters, who assisted in the fun most of the 15-hour show. Miss Raye, however, supplies the punch with her song specialties when the comedy thins... ABC's "Television Theater" made deft recapture of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." Valerie Carrar's emoting was fascinating... Ruth (Max) Gilbert's romp with M. Berle was swift and amusing. She is always a welcome personality... The new series, "I Led Three Lives," clicked. It deals with the adventures of Herbert Philbrick (played by Richard Carlson) when he was an FBI plant in the Red Underground at Boston... The latest Nielsen (teevy) ratings have "I Love Lucy" on top... "Dragnet" runnerup.

Stage Entrance: Showfolks regard Washington as the toughest of the trout towns. Several productions panned hard in the Capitol were later hailed in Hartford, Boston and Philly... Josh Logan, very ill, is the producer and director of four current Broadway hits... Paul Douglas takes over Tom Ewell's star role in "Seven Year Itch" next month when Ewell holidays in the Virgin Isles... John Patrick, author of "Teahouse," is the hottest writer on the local scene. One Hollywood studio flew him to the coast just for a chat. He was offered a young fortune to heighten some of their so-so scripts... The Boston reports on John Murray Anderson's "Almanac" breathlessly add that the show has "the loveliest looking girls" since the days of Ziegfeld, White & Carroll... Creighton Hale, who was Pearl White's leading man in the granddaddy of all movie serials ("The Perils of Pauline"), has a role in "Take the High Ground." Must be at least 75. He still has good looks and class... Basil Rathbone played "Sherlock Holmes" in 16 films and 7 years on the air but his stage version was hampered and insulted. It departed after 3 performances, costing backers $125,000.

Typewriter Ribbons: J. Bruyere. The best we can get from unfaithful women is a cure for jealousy... Dawn: The years speed by but not the days... H. Walpole: Of all virtues, gratitude has the shortest memory... P. Siner: He kept her out until the Oui hours of the morning... R. Quillen: It's a great kindness to trust people with a secret. They feel so important while telling it... Emil Coleman: A smile teasing through a baby's dream... H. Farrar: Informal as a hiccup.

Supper Postponed

The turkey supper planned to be held at the Neola Methodist Church Saturday night was postponed because of the inclement weather. The supper will be held on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, weather permitting. Serving will begin at 5 p.m.

Special Film At Clearview PTA Meeting Tonight

The film "Angry Boy" will be shown tonight at the regular meeting of the Parent Teachers Association at the Clearview Consolidated School, N. Fifth St., at 8. Woodrow Berger, chairman of the program committee, was fortunate in obtaining a loan of the film, which is in great demand by educational organizations, from the New York University, it was stated.

"Angry Boy" concerns the problems of a boy whose neurotic behavior was the result of being subjected to suffering under two generations of parental domination, causing him to eventually become a patient in a psychiatric clinic.

Following the motion picture, Miss Elise Bryan, Stroudsburg School Psychologist, will discuss with parents any matters pertaining to the film.

Edwin F. Buck, president, will introduce a representative of the Red Cross organization, who will talk on Home Nursing. A report will be given on the square dance which was held last Wednesday night, Nov. 4. Mrs. John Baylor, chairman of the dance, requests that any outstanding money or unsold tickets be brought to Mr. Buck before the meeting.

Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee.

The Woman's International Auxiliary, #113 to the ITU, will meet on Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in the CLU Social Club, East Stroudsburg. Mrs. Emily Severson, president, urges a large attendance as members will vote on the proposed amendments to the International Constitution at this meeting. Plans will also be made for the Christmas meeting and annual Children's party.

YMCA Mothers To Plan Events

The YMCA Mothers will meet Tuesday night at 8 at the residence of Mrs. William Wallie, 165 N. Courtland St. It will be a business and social session of the group. Plans for future activities will be discussed.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

You usually think of Spring as remodeling time, but for some reason or other, it's right now that Crystal Street has taken a trip to the beauty parlor and come out with the works.

Even the sidewalk seems wider without the old porch with its pavilion, and the new store fronts make things look neat and modern. However, I'm still holding out for a shade tree or two. Right now the face-lifting is very successful, but without trees a street looks like a woman with no hair.

The little trees and the bit of grass showing through the snow added a sort of home-like touch to the open house at the new Stroudsburg Methodist parish house yesterday afternoon.

If envy were not an un-Christian attitude, had every recreation room would have evoked it in the guests from other denominations, I guess.

You know, it's funny how one well-kept garden in the block can inspire all the other house-holders to plant flowers; how one new storefront is soon flanked by new ones on either side.

Maybe that's what I need—a near neighbor, all spit and polish—to inspire me to get the wash on the line by six o'clock of a Monday morning.

Listen To Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

Ladies Night Banquet Of Kiwanis Club

Ladies' Night celebration of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club proved successful Friday night despite the unexpected snow storm which did put something of a crimp in the program. There were approximately 75 in attendance.

The decorations were elaborate in the Hallowe'en motif, Gardenia corsages and party hats were provided for the ladies and false goatees for the men presented an unusual picture. A turkey dinner was served.

George T. Robinson, past president, was presented by Parke W. Kunkle, president, and acted as toastmaster. The invocation was given by Dr. C. W. Dupree, vice president.

There was a song period led by Dr. Earl Willhoite with Charles McCarthy, of Scranton, as pianist.

John E. Watt, treasurer, gave an imaginary treasurer's report which was filled with humor.

M. W. VanBillard, lieutenant governor, of Bethlehem, and Mrs. VanBillard was unable to make the trip and the same was true of Dopey Duncan, Allentown radio commentator.

However, Bernie Parsons' orchestra of the Bangor area, managed to beat the storm and had highways and furnished the music for the dancing and entertainment by a quartet.

Guests presented included Jesse Flory, president of the Rotary Club and newly-elected chief burgess of East Stroudsburg, and Mrs. Flory; Paul Dellaria, vice president of Exchange Club, Mrs. Dellaria, and Mrs. Bernice All, president B. P. W., and Mr. All.

President Kunkle expressed the appreciation of the club to Eric Schuchard for the decorations and Dr. L. J. Koehler and his committee for general arrangements.

Around The Stroudsburgs

Mr. and Mrs. Jack MacDonough and children, of Maplewood, N.J., were the weekend guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carol D. MacDonough, Douglas Ave., Stroudsburg.

Jack Gelinus, of East Stroudsburg, will leave Boston next Saturday for Detroit, Mich., where he will attend the sessions of the Public Relations Society of America national convention. Jack will represent the Graduate School of Public Relations of Boston University, where he is student under graduate assistance.

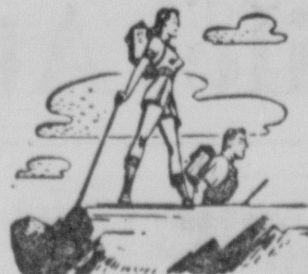

Progressive Women's Club To Meet At Firehall

Saylorburg—The Progressive Women's Club of Saylorburg will hold their second meeting of the year Wednesday night, Nov. 11, at the firehall in Saylorburg, at 8 o'clock.

The Welfare Department, which includes Mrs. Clement Heist, chairman, Mrs. Wesley Shafer, Mrs. Thomas Reinhardt, Mrs. Carl Kresge, Mrs. Clair Sniffen and Mrs. William Geithen have secured Mrs. Charles Albert, of the Children's Aid of Monroe County, who will show slides pertaining to the work that is being done by the organization.

Mrs. Edward DePuy, of Stroudsburg, will relate "Home Nursing," and the Pen Argyl Male Chorus will supply the musical end of the program.

Hostesses for the meeting will be: Mrs. Anna Serfass, Mrs. Myron Snyder, Mrs. Grant Knowles, Miss Marjorie Marsh, Mrs. Walter May, Mrs. Mildred Fritz, Mrs. Martin Hansen, Mrs. Charles Hobbs, Mrs. Frank Schick, Mrs. Harry Shoemaker, Mrs. Alex Voige, Mrs. Clarence Budge, Mrs. Eli Serfass, Mrs. James Serfass, Mrs. Ford Warner, Mrs. Thomas Trach, Mrs. Ralph Van Buskirk, Mrs. Stanley Rader.

Little Weiss Girl's Party On Birthday

Brodheads—Florence Helen Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Weiss Jr., this place, celebrated her first birthday Thursday, Nov. 5, at the home of her parents.

A birthday dinner was served in her honor by her parents to Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Weiss Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gregory, of East Stroudsburg. Little Florence received many gifts, also a number of cards.

An attractively decorated birthday cake baked by her grandmother, Mrs. Florence Gregory, had been placed on a musical cake stand playing "Happy Birthday to you" which pleased little Florence.

That night, Major and Mrs. Thurlow A. Pruyn, of Chocopee Falls, Mass., and Mrs. Harry Arnold and Miss Bess Harps of Stroudsburg, called to help celebrate the event. Refreshments were served.

Pocono Garden Club To See Gift Display

Tannersville—The Pocono Garden Club will hold their last business meeting of the current year on Tuesday, Nov. 10, at the fire house at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Clyde White will be the speaker for the afternoon, and she will present a wide variety of Christmas arrangements, having given unlimited time and a great deal of expense to make this an outstanding program. It is hoped there will be a large turnout of members.

The Christmas banquet committee will give its final report. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. R. C. Shook, Mrs. George Niering, Mrs. Estelle Granacher, Mrs. Alice Hamilton, Mrs. Ida Lank and Mrs. Albert Doll. A large attendance is urged.

Self Denial Of Effort Society

Effort—The Woman's Society of Christian Service held a special meeting in observance of the week of self-denial and prayer at the home of the president, Mrs. John Rinker, on Thursday night. There were 10 members present.

Each had omitted their evening meal and contributed the price of the meal to the society.

The subject for discussion was "Scientific Knowledge, A Stewardship." Rev. LeRoy Bernard and Mrs. Kenneth Rinker were guests at the meeting.

Portland Women's Club Sponsors Benefit Play

Portland—Miss Katherine De Polo, of Cleveland, Ohio, is spending the next three weeks in town as director for the play "Flying High" which will be presented by the Woman's Club in the School Gym on November 12 and 13 for the benefit of Civic and Welfare Work.

This will be a Home Talent Show and tickets are now available and can be purchased from Club Members or from ticket committee, Mrs. Harry Bellis and Mrs. Raymond Scott.

Miss De Polo is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hutecheon during her stay in Portland.

If you're not properly impressed with the proximity of Christmas, drop in at Wyckoff's today and note the changes. You'll find that it's moving day, with Maude Walton picking up her hats preparatory to her annual visit to the main floor; Hattie Walters taking up her bedding for a trek to the vacated millinery department; Dick Shook re-arranging his blinds, floor wax, mops and linoleum to make room for Santa's throne and Toyland, and every niche and corner gradually bursting forth in holiday dress.

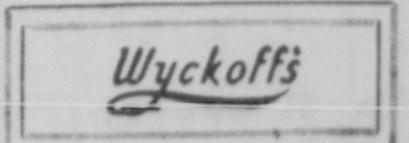

These are busy days for everyone from the maintenance men out back to the display department up under the eaves, with all of us caught up on a breath-taking wave of X-mas-citement. As a matter of fact, our switchboard operator was so carried away by it all that one recent afternoon she switched from melodies like "Far Away Places" to send "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" racing out over the amplifying system.

Christmas has become the main topic of conversation in our store and not just among the customers either. There was, for instance, the department head who had put aside four beautiful milk glass goblets for her mother to complete her dinner set, and who mourned, on Saturday night, that Mother'd just called to ask her to bring some home, as she would be using the set on Sunday. "No matter what I select for her or when," she explained, "something like this happens. Now what on earth will I buy her for Christmas?"

Then, almost any day of the week, you can find Doris Hinton in our lounge, helping some of the girls with their knitting, crocheting or needlepoint . . . even taking it home with her at night to straighten out the errors of her pupils. She's so busy giving a hand to those making Christmas gifts, she'll probably end up buying gifts for the folks on her own list.

Lounge chatter that was once devoted to the latest joke, the newest fad, the most amusing gossip, is now centered about such events as the store Christmas party, employees' shopping night, and what to give everybody from Aunt Addie to Uncle Zeke. Even the big girls with little girls of their own want to know when Santa will arrive, where, and how.

Oh, we're in the mood for Christmas all right—and for everything that goes with it from cookies to sequins. We're ready for Christmas gaiety and for holiday feasting—which reminds me that no department in the store is more fascinating right now than housewares. Prowling around there you can find a wooden rolling pin from Sweden—or is it Hungary?—that imprints varied designs on the cookie dough, even while cutting it neatly and effortlessly. You'll also see moulds in dozens of shapes, sizes, and weights to add interest to everything from cake to salad, and there are gadgets of all types that would be perfect for a Secret Pal or the toe of Mother's stocking. From cellar to attic, we're a CHRISTMAS store, with a heart as big as Santa's and our doorways swinging wide.

New Interlock Plastic Wall Tile At Paint Service Center

Pittsburgh Color Plan Is Varied

Tomorrow's walls are here today... and you can see what we mean at the Paint Service Center, "the progressive store for color, style & service," located across from the Sherman Theater.

Tomorrow's walls are covered with Pittsburgh Interlock Plastic Wall Tile... the tile that gives every room "it" appeal.

"Interlock," with the newest bevel edge and patented features is today's answer to trends of the future. Now, you can color plan your kitchen, bathroom or playroom in the most modern decorative colors and be assured that your plan will fit perfectly into tomorrow's pattern.

"Where there's a wall, there's a way." That's how the folks at the Paint Service Center describe Interlock Plastic Tile's many uses. They'll be happy to show you how easy it is to beautify your walls with tile lustre which will last a wall-time. You can choose from any one or any combination of 16 colors.

In the home, Interlock's possibilities are almost endless. You can use Interlock in the kitchen, for remodeling an old bathroom, when converting an old closet into a powder room, for a downstairs shower, or in the laundry.

Interlock, because of its special patented interlocking feature, custom fits your walls... and it's so easy to clean. Just a damp cloth wipes off any household dirt. There's no dirt, unsightly cement lines so often seen between ordinary tiles. And because of the molded-in color, Pittsburgh Interlock Plastic Tile is fade-resistant and keeps its lustre.

Interlock is also ideal for commercial use. Interlock, because of its color, economy and durability, has been accepted for every type of wall requiring cleanliness and long-lasting quality... at low cost.

THE PAINT SERVICE CENTER opened at its present location here over five years ago. A true "family store" it is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Curt Muller and their son John. The spacious wallpaper department was recently redecorated and done in gay new patterns. The Mullers brought to this area many years of experience which has proven of invaluable help to homemakers and business concerns dealing with decorating and painting problems. The firm is noted for its decorating services, which are offered to its customers without charge. The store is located across from the Sherman Theater.

Spiralator Automatic At Wyckoff's

Wyckoff's announces the arrival of the all-new Easy Spiralator Automatic. Harold Albert, head of the electric appliance department says that it is the only automatic in the world with Spiralator... the washing action 2,000,000 women like best.

The Spiralator is completely different from all other washing actions, says Mr. Albert. Its patented curved vanes travel clothes in a one-way spiral path, thoroughly washing all the clothes in all parts of the tub all the time, with no "floating" at the top, no over-scrubbing at the bottom. Spiralator Rinsing too—the same roll-over action combines with a Deep Overflow Rinse to thoroughly loosen, then flush suds and soil up and over the tub never through the clothes.

You are assured of greater value and greater convenience with the New Easy Spiralator Automatic. Before Spiralator starts, tub automatically fills to right level regardless of water pressure. Water-Temp Switch offers choice of Hot or Warm wash water on Regular cycle.

Traffic Deaths In County Cut In Half During First Nine Months Of This Year

Monroe County had only half as many traffic deaths in the first nine months this year as it had last year.

A total of six traffic deaths were recorded through September, according to the Bureau of Highway Safety. The total was 12 in the same period in 1952.

Monroe County had fewer than half as many traffic deaths in the first nine months this year as it had last year.

The total of six deaths this year compared with 13 in 1952.

One of the deaths was in an urban area. The rest, in rural areas. Pedestrian deaths numbered three in 1952, and only one this year.

Missionary Will Speak Here Tuesday

The annual thank-offering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran Church will be held in the church school room on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The regular thank-offering program as used by the entire United Lutheran Church in America will be in charge of Mrs. Anne Meixell, program chairman of the society. The society has secured Miss Helen Shirk, former missionary to Japan, as the guest speaker. She is recognized as an outstanding speaker. She will be the guest at the Lutheran parsonage while sojourning in Stroudsburg.

Miss Helen M. Shirk

Miss Shirk is now secretary for Japan and in charge of speaking itineraries for missionaries and nationals on the staff of the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Known as a specialist in kindergarten and evangelistic work, Miss Shirk organized the well-known Hakosaki Kindergarten in Japan, which was making remarkable progress previous to World War Two. Aside from denominational responsibilities, Miss Shirk was active in the National Kindergarten Association of Japan.

Following her return to the States, she was educational administrative director of Silver Cross Day Nursery in East Harlem, a nursery for underprivileged children. She holds a B.S. degree in education and religious education from New York University and a master of arts degree in education and psychology from Columbia University. For a period of three months, during the spring of 1949, Miss Shirk returned to Japan to visit the post-war Lutheran Church and all of its institutions from Tokyo on the north to Kagoshima in the south.

The following are officers of the local society: Mrs. G. Alvin Shook, president; Mrs. William Marean, vice president; Mrs. Harold Rupert, secretary; and Mrs. Clarence E. Weiss, treasurer. At the close of the meeting a social hour will follow when refreshments will be served.

Portland Native Is Stricken

J. Fred Johnson, 67, a former resident of Portland, Northampton County, and the vice president of the Penetone Co., New York City chemical manufacturing firm, died unexpectedly Friday.

Mr. Johnson, who lived at 268 Winthrop Ter., South Orange, N. J., was stricken fatally while shopping in New York City. He had had a heart condition for some time.

Born in Portland, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Irvin Johnson. From 1918 until 1946 he was employed by Bethlehem Steel Co. He had been vice president of the chemical firm since 1947.

Mr. Johnson was a member of First Presbyterian and Trinity Church, South Orange, and was a member of the Maskanoza Rod and Gun Club, Pike County; the Baltusrol Golf Club, Short Hills, N. J.; the board of directors of the Atlantic Area YMCA and of Portland Lodge 311, F&AM.

His only survivor is his widow, the former Ethel Allen, also a Portland native.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Horton funeral home, Johnsonville. The Rev. Charles L. Mead, pastor of First Presbyterian and Trinity Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Riverview Cemetery, Portland.

Pocono Band Boosters To Give Program

Tannersville—Pocono Township "Band Boosters" will present a "time saver" program at 8 p.m. today in the school auditorium.

Cooking demonstrations under supervision of Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. employees on appliances from Sears will be a highlight of the program.

Everyone is invited to attend. Admission and refreshments are free. Prizes will be awarded in a series of contests.

Litts Rites Are Conducted

Funeral services for Harry M. Litts, East Stroudsburg, were held at 2:30 p.m. yesterday in Lanterman funeral home, Rev. Harold C. Eaton officiating.

Interment was made in Sand Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were Samuel Bittenbender, James Shook, Richard Smith, Richard Whitmore, Fred Townsend and Wilbert Flory.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

It's with typewriter keys crossed that we begin a discussion of the weather and football, a pair of topics that have become one in recent weeks. The Stroudsburg-Slatington football game, billed for last Friday night, still hasn't been played. It's on the books for a third time tonight, but there's no guarantee that it will be played on the latest of dates, especially with the weatherman being undecided as to what the main course may be today—could be cloudy, rain or even more snow. One more postponement and everyone connected with football at Stroudsburg High will be ready for the gas-pipe.

The Mountaineers were originally slated to battle Slatington on Friday night, but the snows came and the contest was postponed. Saturday, too much snow and wind on Saturday made play impossible. Sunday morning and the schedule once again calls for a football clash between Stroudsburg and the Slaters. The entire situation could almost be funny, except for the seriousness of the contest and the hard work used to prepare Gordon Giffels Field for the game. Right now—that is if you read this article very early this morning—the W. Main St. field is in the best shape possible under the circumstances.

On Saturday it was pointed out that the turf under the snow at Giffels Field was too soft to allow plowing, but the job was done and done well yesterday afternoon. Coach Jerry Stulgaitis, T. Manning "Cap" Curtis, Mahlon Serfass and other athletic friends of Stroudsburg High got the ball rolling and John Belcher, a former Pocono High athlete and now a resident of Chipmunk Drive, brought his light plowing apparatus on the scene and turned in a fine job. As of last night all that was left on the field was a film of ice, which was just wet grass after the plowing, and the very small amount of snow that is impossible to scrape off the ground.

If the weather turns warm today the playing surface should be in fair condition today, although snow will be piled all along the sidelines, but far enough back so as not to interfere with play. All the bleachers were also cleaned off yesterday. The only thing wrong with the entire setup is the fact that the wetter the playing conditions the stronger Slatington will become. The Slaters are a big team and big squads move better in the mud. This is the most important football game of the Mountaineers since 1939 and it must be played. If the contest is played on a field of ice, the 1939 and 1953 grid teams will bear a marked resemblance, as the 1939 club battled Emmaus on a field of ice.

Saturday's postponement was the third time this season that the special night was called off. Maybe this paragraph won't make sense, but the mere mention of the special program has brought bad weather. Let's not tempt fate any further and just drop the topic of conversation. It's not a question of winning the game now, but it's a question of even playing the contest.

It certainly would benefit the players of both teams if the Lehigh Valley League grid battle would be fought in this area if it were played this afternoon instead of tonight. But, the size of the gate must be taken into consideration, as expenses are particularly important where football is concerned. Inclement weather has ruined Stroudsburg's two biggest games this season, namely with Whitehall and Slatington. It poured rain throughout the Stroudsburg-Whitehall encounter a couple of weeks ago.

Stroudsburg isn't the only school having trouble with its field at this date. Northampton High, scheduled to play host to Bangor this afternoon, reportedly was having trouble with its field right up until a late hour yesterday afternoon. The Konkrete Kids attempted to have their playing surface plowed yesterday, but the machinery was too big and dug into the sod on one end of the field. This means of clearing the field was forgotten and a search started immediately to find lighter equipment.

The Bangor-Northampton encounter was postponed from Saturday afternoon, its original date. The amount of snow on the playing field at Gordon Giffels Field varied anywhere from four to six inches on Saturday. The Mountaineers took an unofficial limbering up exercise at the W. Main St. field yesterday afternoon. The only coach in this area without a football worry this past week-end was Jack Kist, grid boss at East Stroudsburg High. The Cavaliers weren't scheduled for action.

It took the Cortland football team more than four hours to come from Scranton to Stroudsburg late Saturday night, only to have Saturday's encounter with East Stroudsburg Teachers cancelled. East Stroudsburg Junior High school's football squad took something like seven hours to come home from Whitehall on Friday. This game was also cancelled.

Snow Upsets Area's High School Football Schedule

Stroudsburg To Play Host To Slatington Machine Tonight

Stroudsburg and Slatington High schools will try for a third time to play their Lehigh Valley League football game at Gordon Giffels field tonight. The kickoff is scheduled to take place at 8 p. m.

The Mountaineers and Slaters were listed for action on Friday night and then again Saturday night, but on each occasion rain and wind proved too much of an obstacle for the arch athletic rivals.

Giffels Field was cleared of snow yesterday and if the weatherman decides to cooperate the contest will be played under the best conditions possible under the circumstances.

John Belcher, a resident of the Chipmunk Drive section of Stroud Township, plowed the snow from the playing surface at the W. Main St. field. The task took three hours yesterday afternoon and put the field in comparatively good condition, providing no additional snow or rain arrives on the scene before game time tonight.

Stroudsburg, shooting for its initial football championship since 1939, is faced with the task of overcoming a strong Slatington team that earlier in the campaign lost by only one point to powerful Northampton. Stroudsburg is currently tied for first place with Northampton on the strength of a league mark of four wins, no defeats and a single tie.

Overall the Mountaineers have won six games and were held to one tie, without defeat. The deadlock was a 7-7 affair at Giffels Field two weeks ago with Whitehall.

Slatington will present one of the biggest and heaviest scholastic teams to ever play in Stroudsburg. The Slaters will also feature Maurice Schleicher, the third highest scorer in the entire Lehigh Valley at the present time.

Stroudsburg's Coach Jerry Stulgaitis announced last night that he would stick with the same lineup that has carried the bulk of the load this season, both offensively and defensively.

Both the Slatington and Stroudsburg lineups have been announced on three occasions previously.

Other Lehigh Valley and Lehigh-Northampton League teams involved in games postponed from Saturday to today include Bangor at Northampton; Palmerton at Wilson Borough and Emmaus at Nazareth.

Easton will also meet Allentown today, while Allentown Central Catholic and Bethlehem clash at the same time.

Two ticket booths will be open at Giffels Field in an effort to handle the expected large crowd as rapidly as possible tonight.

The Stroudsburg-Slatington junior varsity encounter has been postponed until tomorrow, at 4 p. m. This game will be played at Slatington.

Western Pro Conference In Deadlock

By Orlo Robertson

New York (AP)—The Western conference of the National Football League was tossed back into a three-way tie for the lead yesterday when the San Francisco 49ers came from behind on the arm of Y. A. Tittle to defeat the Los Angeles Rams 31-27.

The victory, the second of the year by the 49ers over the Rams, left Los Angeles, San Francisco and Detroit tied, each with a 3-2 record. Detroit defeated the Baltimore Colts 17-7 Saturday night.

The Rams-49ers test highlighted the league's five-game card yesterday in which Cleveland's undefeated Browns swept on to defeat another eastern conference title. They also came from behind to defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-16 for their seventh victory.

Big Crowd

Performing before 85,865 fans, Tittle connected with a 17-yard pass to end Gordy Soltau with little more than a minute to go for the winning touchdown. The throw climaxed an 80-yard aerial show. In their previous meeting at San Francisco, the 49ers won 31-30.

The Philadelphia Eagles remained in second place in the eastern conference, two and one-half games back of the Browns, with a 3-2 record, the 49ers won 31-30.

Little Eddie LeBaron, banged up early in the game, came off the bench to steer the Washington Redskins to a pair of last period touchdowns and 28-17 victory over the winless Chicago Cardinals. It was the Cards' seventh setback.

Babe Parilli hit Bill Howton with a 23-yard scoring pass with less than a minute and a half to play to pull the Green Bay Packers in to a 21-21 tie with the Chicago Bears. The tie enabled the Packers to stay ahead of the cellar-dwelling Bears in the Western Conference.

Bobby Thomson gave one of the league's best passing performances in the Eagles' one-sided triumph. He completed 22 of 44 during a cold afternoon for 437 yards and four touchdowns. His overall performance was the fourth best in league history. Bobby Walston trailed twice, kicked three extra points and added a 15-yard field goal.

Bad Feelings

Bad feelings between the two clubs broke out in the final period. Several were forced to break up. Officials were forced to break up several fist fights and inflict penalties for unsportsmanlike conduct and unnecessary roughness. Some of the 24,331 fans entered into the spirit of the fighting and bombarded the field with snowballs.

The Giants also lost the services of their new quarterback Arnold Gallo. The former Army ace was carried from the field on a stretcher in the first period. He was suffering from muscle spasms of the back. LeBaron, Washington's 168-pound ball-handling star, suffered severe bruising after leading the "Skins" on an 80-yard touchdown march in the first period. It was announced that he probably wouldn't play any more yesterday.

But, after the Cardinals jumped into a 17-14 lead and narrowly missed another touchdown from Washington's one, LeBaron returned to action. His first significant play was a 50-yard pass to Fran Polsoot to the nine. Leon Heath carried the ball over. He then directed the clinching tally with Charlie Justice picking up yardage on the second of his two 35-yard runs. Heath scored the touchdown.

State, Michigan On Video

East Lansing, Mich.—America's television audience will watch a neighborhood grid battle of national importance Saturday afternoon when the University of Michigan and Michigan State College meet at Macklin Field here in the General Motors TV Football Game of the Week.

Top Colleges

The game, which will be seen over the nationwide NBC television network starting at 1:30 p. m. (EST), will pit two of the country's top college teams against each other in a game that will have much to do with the Big Ten conference standings as well as the national football ratings.

The matter of neighborhood supremacy, too, is important to these two schools, located some 60 miles apart in southern Michigan. So, with state, conference, and national prestige riding on the outcome, Saturday's Michigan-Michigan State game truly is the Game of the Week.

Millions of television fans will join the sellout stadium crowd in watching the contest to make Saturday's TV Game of the Week the most looked at college football game ever played.

Local Blue Mountain Cagers To Drill

Stroudsburg's entry in the Blue Mountain Basketball League will hold its initial talent tryout tomorrow in the Stroudsburg High school gymnasium. It was announced last night by Tom Shiffer, coach of the newly formed organization.

The tryout session will get underway at 7 p. m. Anyone wishing to try for a playing position on the team is invited to attend the various practice sessions, beginning tomorrow. All positions on the squad are open at this date.

Shiffer also announced that anyone wishing to fill a r-a-playing post in the newly formed organization will be invited to join the fold.

Assistant Coach

It was also announced last night that Bill Crooks will serve as assistant coach.

Stroudsburg is one of five teams certain to enter the Blue Mountain League this season.

The other four certain entries are Portland, Hackettstown, Weston Club of Easton, and Nazareth Dress Co.

Frank's Barbers and the Grand Theater may also enter the circuit this season. An announcement by these two teams is expected to be made in the very near future.

The next league meeting will be held at the Weston Club on Thursday, November 19.

Lehigh To Battle Tech

Bethlehem—Lehigh University and Carnegie Tech will meet for their 15th football game since 1907 Saturday afternoon in Taylor Stadium.

Parents of Lehigh undergraduates will be guests of the university for this traditional contest between engineering schools.

Coach Bill Leckonby, whose Lehigh teams have not been victims of the Tartans since he took over the coaching reins here in 1946, looks for the closest game in the series.

Records

While the Brown and White has won only three games in seven played, the Tartans sport a record of five triumphs against two losses. In each triumph Tech has scored four touchdowns via the aerial route.

Doubt Features Bangor Grid Tussles Listed For Today

Bangor—It was reported here at a late hour last night that there is a distinct possibility that both the junior varsity and varsity football games may be postponed between Bangor and Northampton today.

The varsity encounter, originally listed for Saturday, was rescheduled for this afternoon, because of snow conditions on Northampton's Wolfe Field. If the game is played today the kickoff will take place at 2 p. m.

If the junior varsity battle is fought it will take place here at Memorial Park at 4 p. m.

But, the doubtful condition of the respective fields led at least one Bangor athletic official to believe that the games may be cancelled completely. An announcement concerning this fact will be made this morning.

The Bangor-Northampton postponement on Saturday was only one of many made necessary by the unseasonable snow storm that struck the east coast.

Both Northampton and Bangor return to action this coming Saturday. The Konkrete Kids tangle with Stroudsburg, at Wolfe Field, while the Slaters oppose Hellertown, on the latter's home turf.

Crowe's Keglers Drop Four

Easton—Crowe's Insurance fell from a first place tie to the number three spot in the standings of the Delaware Valley Bowling League on Saturday, when the East Stroudsburg Keglers dropped four points to Caputo's Cities Service. The match was rolled here on the Firas Club alleys.

The East Stroudsburg contingent, dropping its first four-point match of the season, rolled well enough to win many matches, but couldn't match the red hot Caputo forces.

Big Guns

Dick Andress and Ed Javitt rolled matches of 617 and 585, but the double effort wasn't enough to change the tide of battle. Tom Sommers rolled a 208 single game.

Joe Spinato, Johnny Sabo, Joe Jorle and Don Hawk led the winning attack, with Jorle registering a 642 match, on games of 232, 208 and 202.

Sporting News Sees TV Hurting Boxing

St. Louis—Is television killing boxing? The verdict, almost without dissent, is "Yes." The Sporting News reports in a comprehensive article by Joe King. Yet, ironically, video is viewed as killing off the fight game while, at the same time, creating millions of new fans who follow the sport over the air waves.

When you flood the country with free fight pictures four times a week, few cash customers are going to pay to see a live bout in their own town. As a result, more and more fight clubs are going out of business, eliminating the arenas where young boxers—the kids on the way up—learn the mechanics of the manly art. There now are less than 100 small fight clubs left and only 1,500 licensed boxers against 7,000 10 years ago.

Hurting

With the old pros passing along and the kids unable to serve an apprenticeship scientific boxing is fast disappearing. Instead, The Sporting News story points out, young fighters without seasoning are rushed into the ring for TV bouts. Woefully inadequate boxers are built up into synthetic "name" fighters. Even the new fans being created have no appreciation of fine workmanship but know only the roundhouse swing of the air bouts.

The quality of the game is descending so rapidly, The Sporting News continued in the King story, that TV may be down to rock-bottom with totally unprepared kids in a few years. They will then go on as is, in "a sort of brand-new amateur hour."

Stay At Home Boys Shine

Morgantown, W. Va.—When Art "Pappy" Lewis became the football coach at West Virginia University in 1950, he said, "We are determined to keep our West Virginia boys at home. Why should they leave for other states and make All-America? They can do it at home. Our boys are the best."

A West Virginian himself, born near Clifton, Lewis began selling the state university, with the result that the Mountaineers are sealing the heights of football prominence with a home-made squad.

Home Products

His starting eleven this year includes eight home products—the others show two from over the hills in Western Pennsylvania and one from across the river in Ohio. Led by Freddie Wyant, the sophomore quarterback from Weston, W. Va., the team was undefeated through its first seven games, including a 20 to 19 victory over Penn State.

It was no wonder that "Pappy" was happy. He has kept the state's best natural resources of course, there's always coal at home, and these physical giants are making the best football team in the university's history.

Browns Turn Steelers Into Seventh Straight Victim

By Bud Sprunger

Cleveland (AP)—Ray Renfro flashed down the sidelines for two quick touchdowns yesterday as the Cleveland Browns came from behind to score 24 points in the second period and then swept on to a 34-16 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Seventh Straight

Taking a pitchoot from Otto Graham, Renfro went 44 yards for a first tally. Later the speedy left halfback blocked Nick Bokoyac's field goal try, picked up the bounding ball and sprinted 79 yards to the end zone.

Cleveland, ringing up its seventh straight National Football League victory, moved 66 yards in nine plays for its first touchdown. Ken Carpenter going the last seven. A few plays later Kenny Konz intercepted a pass by Pittsburgh's Jim Finks on the Cleveland 26 and moved the ball on five plays, setting up a 20-yard field goal by Lou Groza.

Cleveland moved 64 yards to its last touchdown on three straight passes by Graham, who hit Dante Lavelli for the 17-yard payoff field goal. Groza added his second field goal, a 14-yard boot, late in that period.

Warriors Cancel Final Grid Contest With Cortland Foe

Snow covered Normal Hill proved too much for both the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College and Cortland football teams on Saturday and their football game was cancelled.

ESSTC coach Gene Martin reported from five to eight inches of snow on the playing field and it was believed useless to attempt work on the field at that late hour. The kickoff was scheduled to take place at 2 p. m.

Cortland had arrived in Stroudsburg just before midnight on Friday and was ready for Saturday's tussle. But, the weatherman had other ideas and sent the snow storm to force the contest off the books.

The game was completely cancelled because the Cortland budget reportedly wouldn't allow the team to make the trip a second time.

Even Mark

By not playing on Saturday ESSTC's final football record read three wins and three setbacks.

The wins were over Millersville, 31-0; Mansfield, 9-0; and Ithaca College, 20-0.

ESSTC bowed to Shippensburg, 30-0; King's College, 13-0; and West Chester, 16-6.

The Warriors completed the season with 66 points scored and gave up 59 points to the opposition.

Ten members of the ESSTC club brought their collegiate careers to a close this season. The list includes Jack Morris, Joe Tichi, Bob Smith, Harry Steevers, Tom Frank, George Colonius, Bob Tyson, Frank Kennedy, Ted Murray and Art Schaare. Members of this list graduate in either January or May.

Colonius is a resident of East Stroudsburg and Morris is a native of Pen Argyl.

Eastburg Junior Varsity Idle

Although East Stroudsburg High usually plays its junior varsity football games on Monday, there will be no action today due to an open date in the schedule.

In addition, the Engineers will defend for the third consecutive year their Middle Atlantic Collegiate Fencing Association title at Temple University.

Robbins Wins Marathon Run For Health

Philadelphia (AP)—Charles Robbins, a 33-year-old U. S. public health physician, yesterday won a 26-mile marathon run that may help prolong the lives of persons suffering from heart diseases.

Robbins was one of 33 distance runners competing in the event sponsored by two heart hospitals. Each runner underwent a series of medical tests before and after the race through the streets of Philadelphia and its suburbs.

The tests, which will be evaluated and published later, will determine the impact of tremendous exertion and systematic exercises on the heart and arteries. The research specialists were especially interested in fat metabolism, which is connected with the early stages of hardening of the arteries.

Robbins, a veteran long distance runner and holder of many national AAU titles, completed the grind in two hours, 26 minutes and seven seconds. Second was Ted Corbett, a New York physio-therapist, followed by Edo Romagnoli, a New York traffic policeman.

The race started from the downtown Wolfe clinic and hospital and ended at the Valley Forge heart institute and hospital in suburban Fairview Village. It was sanctioned by the Middle Atlantic AAU.

Weather Kills Football In Pennsylvania

By the Associated Press

Rain, sleet and snow may be no obstacle to the mailmen, but they certainly play havoc with college football. Thirteen games involving Pennsylvania teams were snowed out over the past weekend and the 15 games played all were delayed by shovel brigades clearing the fields.

Two of the state's three unbeaten teams managed to play and both preserved their untarnished records. Tailback Don Pheasant scored a pair of touchdowns and set up another to help Juniata make it six in a row with a 22-0 whitewashing of Grove City. Westminster, the nation's top class "B" college defensive football team, trampled winless Allegheny 14-0 for its seventh straight loss for Allegheny.

Shippensburg got a tough break when its game with hapless Cheyney was cancelled because of snow.

The tough Ed Raiders from central Pennsylvania figured to cake-walk to their seventh consecutive triumph. Other games lost to the weather were Cortland Teachers-East Stroudsburg, Drexel-Western Maryland, Wagner-Susquehanna, National Aggies-Gallaudet, Lock Haven-Mansfield, Union-Haverford, P.M.C.-Delaware, Lebanon-Valley. Albright now scheduled for tomorrow night at Reading, F&M-Ursinus, St. Paul's Poly, Millersville-West Chester Friday night, and Scranton-Kings Sunday.

Big Battle

The big game of the weekend in the Keystone State was Notre Dame. Students pitched in to clear the field of snow and then the Irish and Quakers went at it. Notre Dame needed a lot more than its top team reputation before losing to the Red and Blue 28-20.

Penn played one of its best games in the 16-year-reign of coach George Munger, and well could claim a moral victory in this one. Penn played to win and night have done just that if it hadn't been for Johnny Lattner who returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown, set up two other Notre Dame scores and played a whale of a game defensively.

Gettysburg made it six in a row against one defeat by trouncing Dickinson 32-0.

Stanford, Baylor Suffer Initial Defeats Of Campaign As Kicking Artists Spell Difference

By Bob Hoobing

New York, (AP)—Sam Tsagalakis, pint-sized kicking specialist from Southern California, and Phil Branch, strapping guard from Texas, literally have put a foot into bowl dreams at Stanford and Baylor.

It was 160-pound Tsagalakis' 38-yard field goal with just 14 seconds left in the game that handed Stanford its first Pacific Coast Conference loss in six contests, 23-20. The Indians still lead Far West candidates for the Rose Bowl but the defeat kept idle UCLA, 4-1 in PCC play and ninth ranked in the nation, very much in the running.

Branch, a 205-pounder, provided the margin of Texas' 21-20 victory over previously unbeaten Baylor by kicking three extra points which scrambled the Southwest Conference race for the title and an automatic Cotton Bowl bid.

Spotlight

Johnny Lattner took the individual spotlight as Notre Dame, the nation's leading team which does not believe in post season play, staved off Penn's surprising Quakers for a 28-20 triumph.

Meanwhile Illinois' J. C. Carline, Maryland's Chet Hanulak, Oklahoma's Larry Griggs and West Virginia's Tom Allman have nudged their teams to the brink of a New Year's Day invitation.

Caroline darted 184 yards through Michigan's defenses as Illinois, number four, handed the Wolverines a 19-3 setback with an eye turned toward Pasadena. Hanulak powered second place Maryland's 27-6 effort against George Washington and Grigg sparked eighth ranked Oklahoma's 14-7 triumph over Missouri as these two schools marched steadily toward an Orange Bowl meeting under the new Atlantic Coast-Big Seven Conference tie-up.

Allman tallied both times as seventh rated West Virginia came from behind to defeat Virginia Tech 12-7 and enhance its chances for a post season engagement.

Georgia Tech, number six, continued to look like a sure bet for either the Sugar or Cotton Bowl in downing Clemson 20-7. Leroy Bolden got three touchdowns as fifth place Michigan State stayed within range of Illinois in the Big Ten with a 28-13 victory over Ohio State. Navy played Duke, number 10, to a scoreless draw on the snow-softened turf at Baltimore.

Leahy Praises 'Unselfish' Irish Gridders

By Will Grimsley

Philadelphia, (AP)—Frank Leahy is not ready yet to place the mark of greatness on his present Notre Dame football team, but he'll concede one point—there's never been one freer of jealousy.

"If I had to use one word to describe these lads," the Irish head coach said yesterday, "it would be unselfishness. I have never seen a bunch of boys so unselfish."

"Often when a team has one player who gets a great deal of publicity, the other players cool on him and say, 'Okay, if he's so hot, let's see what he can do by himself.'"

"In our case, John Lattner has come in for an unusual amount of attention. He's already made All-America. He's the cover boy, so to speak, with pictures on the front of magazines. He's been called our bread and butter back."

"But instead of resenting him the boys all idolize him. They look up to him as a sort of hero. They think he's wonderful. It's this sort of spirit which has jelled our lads into the team it is."

It was Lattner, a tow-head senior from Chicago's west side, who personally preserved Notre Dame's proud unbeaten record Saturday at Franklin Field where the Irish won over a surprisingly tough Penn, 28-20.

Difference

A 60-minute double duty performer even in two-plateau days, the six-foot-one, 190-pound halfback ran back a kickoff 92 yards for one touchdown, set up two other scores with runbacks of 35 and 56 yards and then prevented a fourth Penn touchdown with an end zone pass interception.

Three World Championship Bouts Highlight This Week's Program Of Fistic Encounters

New York, (AP)—Three world championship bouts top the boxing program this week at such widely scattered points as Montreal, Chicago and Sydney, Australia.

Lightweight champ Jimmy Carter starts it off Wednesday at the Montreal Forum against Armand Savio of Montreal in a 15-round defense, the first championship bout at Montreal since 1931. Carter is five to one over the challenger.

"Kid" Gavilan risks his welter title at the Chicago Stadium Friday against Johnny Bratton of Chicago, the number one contender.

The Gavilan-Bratton bout is the only one of the three championship fights to be seen on television (NBC) with the Chicago area blacked out. It also will be heard on radio (ABC) at 10 p.m. (EST).

Australia

Bantamweight champ Jimmy Carruthers of Australia makes his first defense before the home fans at Sydney Friday against Henry "Pappy" Gault of Spartanburg, S. C., former North American 118-pound ruler.

Although the Carter-Savio bout originally was scheduled for TV, technical difficulties changed the plans. The TV fans (CBS) will see middleweight rematch from Washington D. C., between Randy Sandy of New York and Willie Troy of Washington.

The Saturday night show (ABC-TV) opens up a new city to boxing when Albany, N. Y., gets back into action with Pat Manzi of Syracuse, N. Y. and Gerald Dryer of South Africa, the British Empire welter champion, in a 10-rounder.

New York gets its first look at Edgardo Romero, a new Argentine heavyweight who is unbeaten in 25 fights, in a match with James J. Parker, Paterson, N. J.

Michigan Runner Wins AAU Event

Cincinnati, (AP)—John di Camandria, 25-year-old Bostonian, attending Michigan State Normal, yesterday won the National AAU 25 kilometer running championship in one hour, 27 minutes and seven seconds.

Second

Howard Hughes, 18, University of Cincinnati freshman, was second in the field of 12.

Charles Fee of Cannonsburg, Pa., was third.

Shoemaker Adds Five

San Mateo, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker booted home five winners, including Determine ($4-40) in the Robert O'Brien Handicap at Bay Meadows, to bring his season's total to 430 on Saturday.

Crafty Admiral Looking For Soft Track At Laurel Park

Laurel, Md. (AP)—A soft track for the Washington D. C. International is just what Crafty Admiral wants, owner Charles Cohen of Miami Beach, Fla., said yesterday regarding reports the 1952 handicap champion might be scratched from the Laurel Park horse classic.

Good old sunshine beat down on Laurel Park yesterday after Friday's blizzard which forced postponement Saturday of the mile and one-half race. The snow was melting fast on the infield grass course, and barring rain—or any more snow—the track should be in excellent condition for Wednesday's race.

Some Doubt

Some doubts were raised Sunday when it was reported Crafty Admiral, listed as the 5-2 favorite, might not go if the track was too soft. The Admiral has never raced on a turf course.

Cohen's assurance on Crafty Admiral made Laurel officials happy. They had been rather downcast by the heavy snow that caused a shutdown of all racing Saturday. Racing will resume today.

All-American Prospect Hurt

Pittsburgh, (AP)—Tackle Eldred Kraemer of Pitt, boomed for All-America, is out with a dislocated right shoulder for the rest of the season.

Contest

Kraemer was injured in the third quarter of Saturday's Pitt-Virginia football game at Charlottesville, Va. Pitt won the game 26-0.

Brownsville Pulls Upset On Uniontown

Harrisburg (AP)—Snow caused cancellation and postponement of almost all school football action in eastern and central Pennsylvania this weekend but it was a determined Brownsville eleven that put a permanent roadblock in the 1953 title march of Uniontown in the west's big game.

Brownsville won its third WPAL class "AA" game of the season and fifth of the year in nine games by tumbling Uniontown 14-7. The defeat was the first in nine starts for Uniontown's Raiders and knocked them from the WPAL race after six double victories. A defeat or tie eliminates a team from title contention.

It was a repeat win for the Brownsies, last year's game also going to Brownsville by a one touchdown margin, 32-26. The visiting Brownsville team scored in first and last quarters to build up a 14-0 lead before Uniontown came back for its one score.

In Running

The upset left only Donora, New Castle and Bar-Brack from a total of 36 schools still unbeaten and untied in "AA" competition. They are not scheduled to meet this year but if two complete the season without losing there will be a playoff.

It was the fifth straight week that a single contender had been eliminated.

All but a few of the east and central Pennsylvania games were postponed or canceled because of the snow. Many of Friday night's games were rescheduled for Saturday but then called off again. Some are on tap for today including the important Tamaqua at Pottsville East Penn tilt.

Here's a league by league rundown on other major circuits.

Western—The top of the standings is just as cluttered as a month ago with five teams within 50 points of leading Adams Twp. Adams has an 8-0 log but it's not the best. Fourth rated Bellwood-Antis has won one more without a defeat or tie.

Once Beaten

Once beaten Windbert Adams and losing ground weekly although winning. All victorious Lock Haven and once-tied Phillipsburg are still in the picture with DuBois and Pennsylvania only beaten once.

East Penn—So few games were played this weekend (five of 21) that the league is not issuing its regular Sunday night standings. That leaves everything as it was last week with Scranton Tech leading West Scranton and Wilkes-Barre GAR in the north and Lansford 10 points behind Tamaqua in the southern division. Schuylkill Haven and Pottsville are still in the running in the southern.

Section II—By kicking Oil City, 32-6, Corry clinched its second straight title. It was the fifth league win for the Beavers, one over every team in the conference. It also was the ninth victory of the season for Corry and gave the Beavers the distinction of clinching the first major conference flag of 1953.

Central No games over the weekend. York, unbeaten and untied, in front with a 5-0 mark followed by Reading, beaten only by the Bearcats in five league starts.

Portland's Trade Board Holds Party

Portland—The 13th annual Board of Trade dinner was held recently at Forks Valley Tavern, near Easton and attracted about 250 members. Following a turkey dinner, Alfred Nittle welcomed those present and thanked the members for their efforts on behalf of the organization. He introduced Mrs. Howard Ott, who with her husband Dr. Howard Ott, were the guests of honor.

Clifford Sebring served as toastmaster and introduced the officers of the association and a number of local and county officials. George Werkheiser the first president was introduced and special mention was made of Max Effross who has been the only treasurer of the association. Val Hochrein, one of the organization's most faithful supporters was unable to attend, probably the first dinner he had missed in the thirteen.

Mr. Sebring expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Henry Webb "who not only worked hard herself but had the aid of Mr. Webb" and to the members of the dinner and entertainment committees: Frank Fitzgerald, Henry Webb, Everett Hughes, Max Effross and George King.

A floor show generally conceded to be the best one ever to be presented at one of the dinners, was followed by dancing.

Officers of the organization are: president, Alfred Nittle; vice president, Val Hochrein; second vice president Frank Fitzgerald; treas-

THE DARK CONTINENT doesn't look quite so dark to fourth graders at Pocono Township School—thanks to the efforts of their student teacher Delores Kroll and regular teacher, Mrs. Gladys Seese. Teachers encouraged children to exercise their imaginations while studying Africa: came forth with suggestions on making papier mache animals, animal masks, a jungle mural and shadow-box replicas of African villages. Pupils also published a mimeo-newspaper called "Our Jungle Booklet". With 33 pupils in class, production of "unit" was finished in six weeks. Here children who worked primarily on animals are shown with teachers. On left side of table, rear to front, are Mrs. Seese, Lee Munch (giraffe) and Keturah Dodd (alligator). Right, same order, Miss Kroll, Suzanne Butts (zebra) and Joy Post, who worked on elephant in cooperation with Pat Hay, not present for photo. Teachers used maximum "visual aids" during study course; interpolated recordings of Rudyard Kipling's "Jungle Book" stories and film strips on Africa throughout course. Mercy League Is Organized In Community

A League of Mercy was organized here last week by women affiliated with the Salvation Army. The league's chief function will be to run errands, contact relatives and do other missions of kindness at the request of bed-ridden patients.

Major Frances Neienhuis, League of Mercy secretary for Northeast Pennsylvania, inducted the new group. Captain Doris Baker is the leader.

Membership cards were presented to the following at a dinner at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Baker:

Mrs. Harold Van Why, Mrs. Mary Serfass, Miss Ramona Teck, Miss Betty Sargent, Mrs. Rachael Sargent, Miss Margaret Sargent, Miss Anna Schoffler, Mrs. Edward Rickley, Mrs. George Gafus, Mrs. Frank Sargent.

Maj. Neienhuis enrolled four new members in the Home League sponsored by the Salvation Army. They are: Mrs. Marie Stitzer, Mrs. Minerva Sargent, Miss Anna Schoffler.

Esso Standard Oil Company is proud to offer

NEW "TOTAL POWER"

ESSO EXTRA

THE BEST GASOLINE YOU CAN BUY!

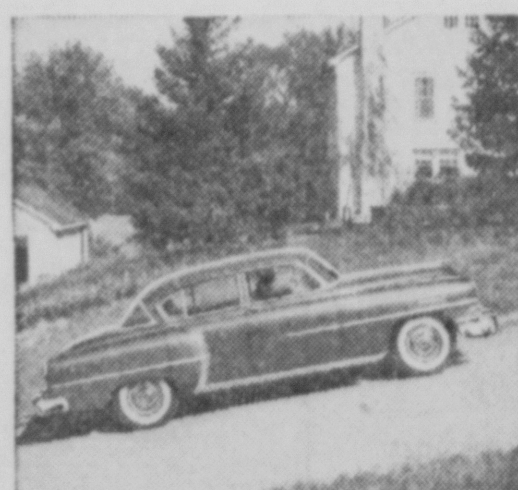

Bringing you:

1. MORE SHEER ANTI-KNOCK POWER than any other gasoline you can buy!
2. TOTAL POWER to get the utmost working horsepower from any engine under today's all-round driving conditions

New "TOTAL POWER" ESSO EXTRA is a blend of hydrocarbon power components especially engineered to meet the total power and anti-knock requirements of even the highest-compression new engines. For millions of older cars it means better working horsepower and better total engine performance. It is not only the finest gasoline in Esso history . . . but the very best gasoline you can buy!

TOTAL POWER means just what it says. It means, to begin with, a great advance in sheer high-compression POWER under the toughest driving conditions. It means POWER to start fast in any weather . . . POWER for fast warm-up . . . POWER to kill off knocks and pings . . . POWER to resist cool weather stalling . . . POWER to take steep hills in stride . . . POWER to pick up swiftly from a standstill. It means that in the total of the jobs your engine is called on to do, you can expect the maximum that can be obtained from any gasoline that you can buy. The inevitable result is the kind of smooth performance and long mileage you've always wanted.

For the very newest in "Happy Motoring" try new "TOTAL POWER" ESSO EXTRA in your car today. You will find no other gasoline gives you more in extra performance under today's all-round driving conditions.

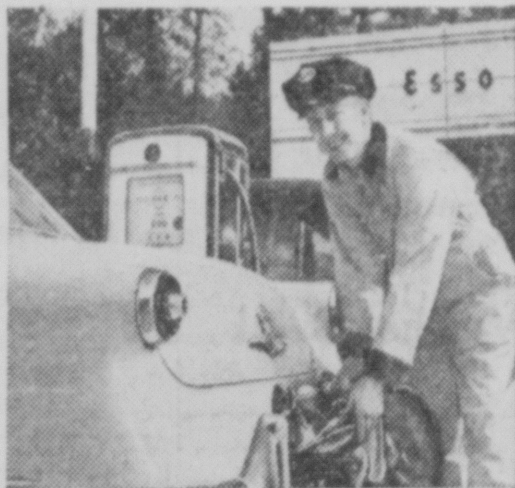

TOTAL WORKING HORSEPOWER for the highest-compression cars! For many late model high-compression cars "Total Power" Esso Extra makes it possible for the first time to enjoy full performance without a trace of knock or ping.

TOTAL WORKING HORSEPOWER for many new cars where total performance is now kept "under wraps" by retarding the spark to avoid knocking. These cars may be set to fully efficient timing, giving owners more horsepower, better gas mileage, too!

TOTAL WORKING HORSEPOWER wherever "cold engine stalling" is a critical problem on cool, moist days. Contains a special additive that protects against stalling caused by carburetor icing, permits maximum possible power-flow from the time you start your engine.

TOTAL WORKING HORSEPOWER can benefit present users of "regular" gasoline who drive mostly in short trips around town. Now, by switching to new "Total Power" Esso Extra, they can get better mileage this winter . . . better all-around performance, too.
